

Love Song 4 Lucy

Captain Festus McBoyle

*Don't do dishes, she dont close the door
Probably find her Bloomers on the bedroom floor
Still my sweet baby, I love you
Looks so pretty but don't smell sweet
I could make a soup from the socks on her feet
Still my sweet baby, I love you*

*Love may be fickle and love may be blind
But when I'm with my baby well I just don't know what I'll find
Still my sweet baby, I love you, oh yeah
I love you through the thick and I love you through the thin
But you never close the door so every Tom, Dick and Harry still comes in Still my sweet baby, I love you.*

SCAT VOCAL

*A rough diamond, the woman of my dreams
But when her wooden leg falls off well everybody screams
She's got only 13 teeth and one glass eye, oh yeah
She snores like a Trooper but I wouldn't change a thing
Infact I got down on one knee and then I gave her this ring*

*Oh my sweet little Lucy, I love you, that is true
My sweet little Lucy, I love you, yes I do
My sweet little Lucy, I love you*
