

Brand New Day

Captain Festus McBoyle

*A Brand New Day the sun is rising
My brain is waking, analysing
How the day is to unfold
Will it be fun or slightly cold*

*Will it be hot or just luke warm
Will I find love, be oh forlorn
Will I be safe upon the bus
Will I be late, oh so much fuss.*

*I might stay home and watch the tele
Flag the wash and stay all smelly
No brushing teeth or combing hair
Re-wear the same old underwear
Just lock the door and hide away
Start from scratch another day*
