

Holding the Baby

Captain Festus McBoyle

Oh always Holding the Baby
 Always Pushing the Pram
 Always doing the Ironing and I'm working like a Dog I am

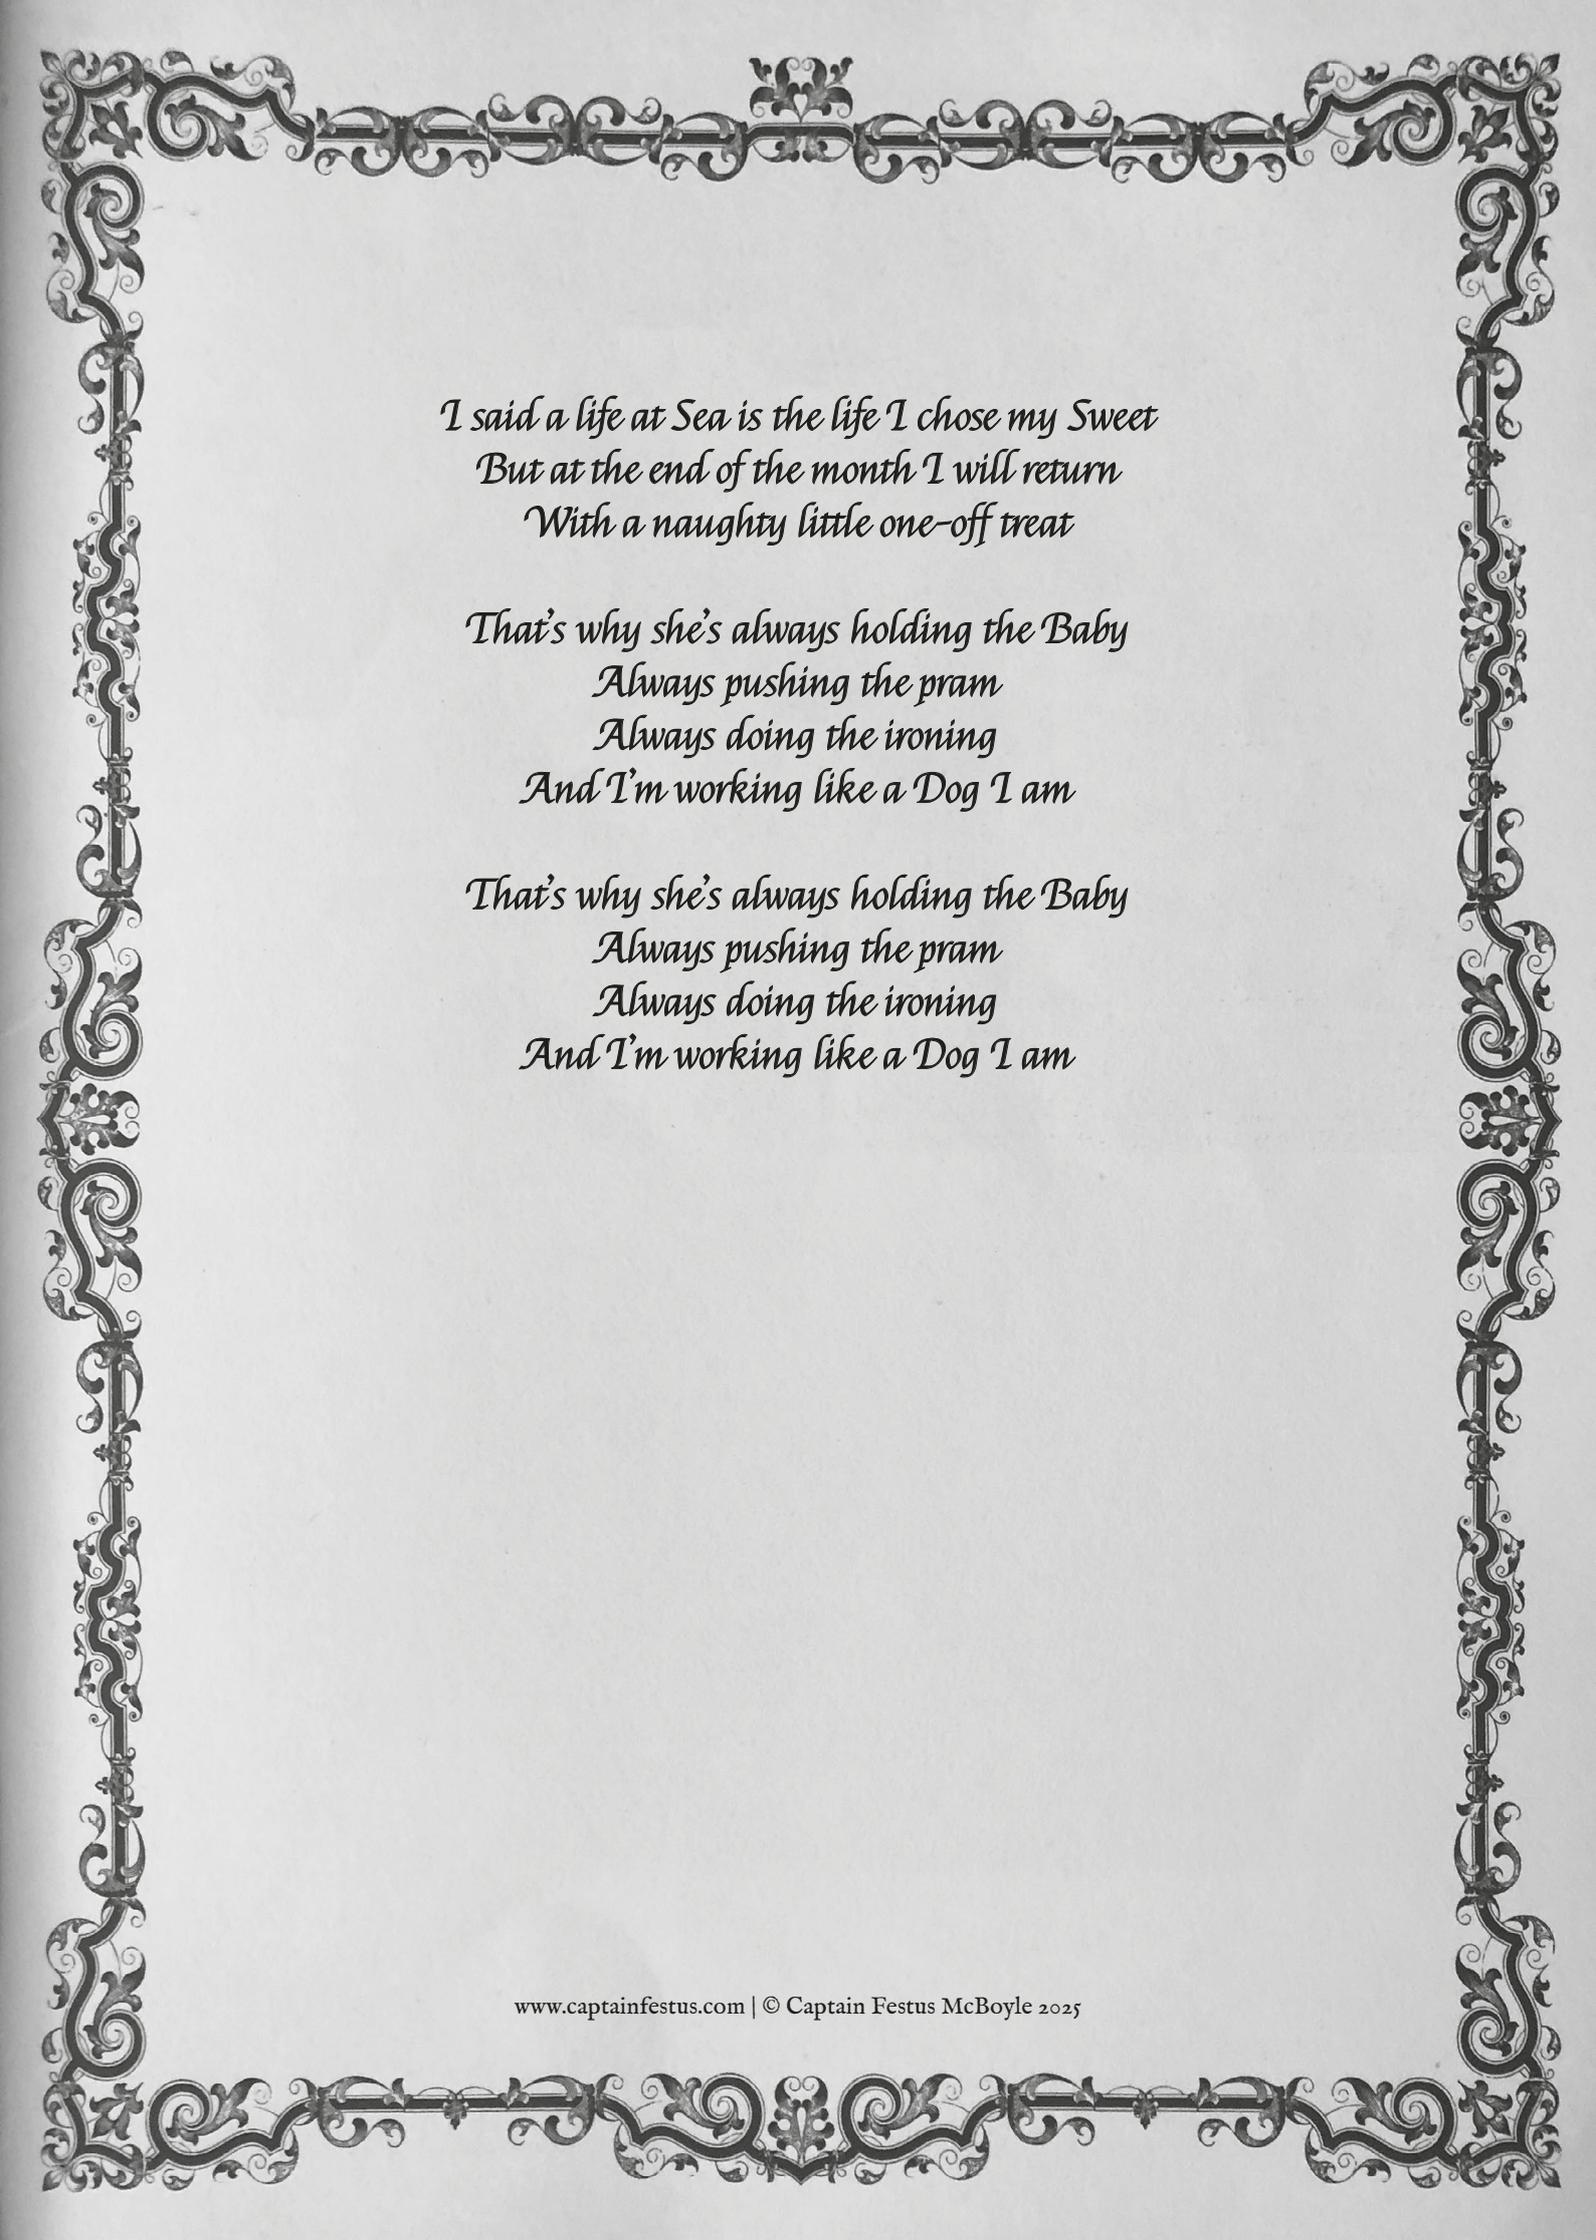

I said a life at Sea is the life I lead it's true
 But all the Treasure and Gold I nick each month
 Is coming home back to you .... Lies!

Oh on Mondays cleaning the nappies .... Oooh!
 Tuesdays scrubbing the floors
 Wednesday short by a penny or two so she's out there showing her drawers...
 Oooh!

That's true ya know, she's very enterprising my wife
 But then you have to be being a Pirates wife
 Cause you ain't got that much to work with really

Bout that much
 Yeah bout that much
 How does he know?
 I don't wanna know!

Oh Thursdays cleaning the windows
 Fridays empty the Pan .... Oooh!
 8 little kids with beards to feed
 So I'm working like a Dog I am - Woof Woof

A decorative border with intricate scrollwork and floral patterns surrounds the text.

*I said a life at Sea is the life I chose my Sweet
But at the end of the month I will return
With a naughty little one-off treat*

*That's why she's always holding the Baby
Always pushing the pram
Always doing the ironing
And I'm working like a Dog I am*

*That's why she's always holding the Baby
Always pushing the pram
Always doing the ironing
And I'm working like a Dog I am*
